

THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF

WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

10 Feb 50

Dear Hilley:

Please handle the enclosures as "Eyes only." May I have the file back when you have finished with it?

Let me know if you want to talk to me about this subject. I understand the delicacy of the matter and realize you may prefer to read the enclosed and return with no comment.

Admiral Espe had this file for a day, so that his specialists could peruse it. They said Frenchy's letter was a condensation of a 100 pg. document sent in by Beale some months back.

Sincerely
Pete

Dear Pete:

Thank you very much for letting me see the enclosed "eyes only" file. This checks about with what we have on the thing and I am returning it herewith to you. Thank you, again, very much.

Dear Pete:

I am returning herewith the book you so very kindly loaned us. Thanks a lot. The whole family found it most interesting and there are a lot of laughs in it.

With best wishes, please believe me,

Sincerely,

S/.
